

AL-FAROOQ MASJID OF ATLANTA

Congregation for Eid-ul-Adha Salah at Al-Farooq Masjid of Atlanta

Alhamdulillah, Ed-ul-Adha is on Friday, July 31, 2020 and as per the Shariah guidelines, it is Wajib (necessary) on individuals to establish EID Salah collectively. With the help of Allah and from the help of volunteers, we are planning to establish the Salah at Al-Farooq Masjid with the following:

Guidelines:

1. There will be 4 congregations
2. 50-70 people will be allowed a time on first come first basis
3. Children under 10 and individuals above 65 of age or with pre-existing conditions will not be allowed.
4. Come with Masks
5. Bring your own personal prayer rug
6. Maintain 6 feet distance at all times
7. Be ready to get your temperature checked at the entry point
8. Sign the Questionnaire and pledge form to waive the liability of the Masjid
9. Leave the Masjid premises immediately after Salah

Eid Salah Location:

Parking lot (open area) basement of the parking on the back of Dar-un-Noor Academy.

Eid Salah Timings:

1st Jama'ah: 7:30am

2nd Jama'ah: 8:0am

3rd Jama'ah: 8:30am

4th Jama'ah: 9:00am

Note:

Al-Farooq Masjid of Atlanta will open its premises for Eid-ul-Adha in limited form and happy to welcome all congregants for Eid Salah Congregation. The actual building will remain closed. Therefore, all congregants, participants, and visitors are required to follow the guidelines and must fill the questionnaire before entering the Masjid premises. All are requested to print the questionnaire and Masjid waiver form at home, fill it, and submit to our volunteers at the time of entry.

-Management-

July 29, 2020