FEES/TUITION/PAYMENTS & WITHDRAWAL POLICY

1. Darul Uloom of Atlanta has a 12-month academic calendar (July 2024 to June 2025).
2. Darul Uloom of Atlanta requires a commitment to an annual tuition total. This tuition amount is not based on time of enrollment or days spent in school. Rather, the annual amount is owed and must be paid even if the child is withdrawn or quits in the middle of the year.
3. If Darul Uloom requests the withdrawal of a child for disciplinary or other reasons, where payment has been made in accordance with any of the options listed in the tuition agreement, the decision on the refund of tuition paid/or will be paid, will be made by Darul Uloom, upon consideration of the merits of each case.
4. Tuition payments are due no later than the fifth (5th) day of each month. A late fee of $10.00 per day will be added for late payments.
5. If tuition is not paid, then the student will not be allowed to attend classes after the tenth (10th) day of the month. The tuition balance should be paid by the 30th day of the month or the student's enrollment may be terminated.
6. A surcharge of $35.00 is payable if any check is returned for insufficient funds. After two (2) returned checks, only cash or money orders will be accepted.
7. Additional fees for special events and/or activities may be required throughout the school year.
8. If a child is withdrawn from the school on the parent's initiative, before the end of the first month of the school, where the full year's tuition has been paid, a refund of 11 months will be made.
9. If a child is withdrawn from the school on the parent's initiative, before the end of the second month of the school, where the full year's tuition has been paid, a refund of 6 months will be made.
10. If a child is withdrawn from the school on the parent's initiative, after the end of the second month of the school, where the full year's tuition has been paid, no refund will be made.

PAYMENT OPTIONS & POLICY

The option of twelve-monthly payments for parents' convenience is available as follows:

- |                                             |                                           |

NON-DISCRIMINATORY POLICY

1. Darul Uloom of Atlanta admits students of any race, color, national and ethnic origin to all the rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the school.
2. Darul Uloom of Atlanta doesn't discriminate on the basis of race, color, national and ethnic origin in the administration of its educational policies, scholarship, athletic and other school-administered programs.

DISCIPLINE POLICY & CONSEQUENCES

1. Repeated violations of Darul Uloom rules, regulations, and policies or engaging in actions, which bring Darul Uloom of Atlanta / Al-Farooq Masjid of Atlanta into dispute, will result in definite/indefinite suspensions or expulsion from the program.
2. Insulting any teacher, staff, or member of the management of Darul Uloom / Al-Farooq Masjid of Atlanta will not be tolerated in any circumstance and will result in expulsion from the program.
3. All students are required to obey teachers, staff members and the warden appointed by management of Darul Uloom of Atlanta / Al-Farooq Masjid of Atlanta.

Note: Violation of the above-mentioned rules, regulations, and discipline policy will result in the following disciplinary action:

3. 1st offense: verbal warning
4. 2nd offense: withdrawal of privileges
5. 3rd offense: parent-teacher conference
6. 4th offense: suspension from program
7. 5th offense: possible expulsion from program

GENERAL POINTS

1. Since Islam is a disciplinary religion that emphasizes on piety, good conduct, beautiful manners and excellent behavior, each student is required to comply with the laws of Islam together with the rules of Darul Uloom and instructions of the teachers / staff members.
2. Rules and regulations are framed for the convenience of the students and smooth running of the institute. Compliance of which saves much time and energy, thus affords the student and administration greater opportunities to concentrate on the curriculum and Tarbiyah (Islamic upbringing) programs. Therefore, students are bound to obey and honor each and every rule stated in the above.

Graduation Details

1. After a student completes the Hifz (memorization of the Qur'an), two graduations will be held; (1) in-class individual graduation and (2) final collective graduation.
2. In-class individual Hifz graduation is organized at Al-Farooq Masjid as soon as a child completes the Hifz. Hall for the graduation is provided by Darul Uloom while food and supplies for the program are sponsored by the parents.
3. The final collective graduation is held in the month of May, where all the Huffaz (graduates) are felicitated together with their turban ceremony, Hifz certificates, and other awards. Parents are encouraged to participate in organizing the final graduation by providing financial and moral support to the Darul Uloom.
